ELECTORAL REGULATIONS, 2005

[Form repealed by s.i 88 of 2013].

(21) The forms prescribed in respect of elections of members of Parliament shall be used, where applicable and with appropriate modifications, in respect of any election to the office of President or any elections to the governing bodies of local authority councils.

(22) The certification required to enable a member of the Public Service to be eligible for nomination as a candidate and for election as councillor in terms of section 119(5) of the Act shall be in form V.21.

(23) ...

[Form repealed by s.i 88 of 2013].

4. Addresses of constituency elections officers

The Chief Elections Officer shall, not more than fourteen days after the day fixed by the President in terms of section 38(2)(a) of the Act as the day on which the nomination court shall sit, appoint constituency elections officers for each constituency and specify by notice in the Gazette the constituency or constituencies involved and address of the constituency elections officer for each constituency.

5. Distinction of ballot papers when Parliamentary and Presidential elections coincide

When Parliamentary and Presidential elections coincide, ballot papers issued to voters in the Parliamentary election shall be printed in a colour different from that in which ballot papers issued to voters in the Presidential election are printed.

[Section repealed by s.i 88 of 2013]

7. Instruments for marking ballot papers

(1) An electoral officer shall not divulge to any person particulars of the instrument which is supplied to electoral officers for marking ballot papers with the official mark.

(2) The constituency elections officer shall place the instruments referred to in subsection (1) in sealed packets, and shall not open such sealed packets or permit them to be opened until immediately before the commencement of the poll.

8. Counting of votes

(1) At the time notified by the presiding officer for the counting of votes the presiding officer shall distribute the ballot papers in each ballot box referred to in section 55(1) of the Act to counting officers in lots suitable for scrutiny and counting.

(2) The counting officers shall scrutinize the ballot papers and set aside all ballot papers which, in their opinion, are such as are described in section 63(3) of the Act for the decision of the presiding officer in terms of that subsection.

(3) The counting officers shall set aside in a separate pile or bundle those ballot papers which do not bear the official mark of a presiding officer so that the presiding officer may determine, after the number of votes cast at the election has been ascertained, whether such ballot papers should not be rejected by virtue of section 63(5) of the Act.

(4) When the scrutiny of the ballot papers is completed, the presiding officer, with the assistance of the counting officers, shall then ascertain the result of the poll by counting the votes.

(5) The presiding officer shall adopt such means as to him or her seem best suited for dealing with the counting of the votes, and shall direct that every pile or bundle of ballot papers made up by any counting officer shall be handed to another counting officer or to himself or herself, but to no other person, to be checked in order to ensure that every such pile or bundle comprises no more and no less than the number of ballot papers stated to be comprised therein by the first counting officer.

(6) The presiding officer shall record the details of the counting on a polling station-return as shown on form V.11.

9. No person to notify results before polling-station return has been affixed outside the polling station

No person in attendance at the counting of the votes shall, before the result of the poll is recorded on the polling-station return and such polling-station return has been affixed outside the polling station by the presiding officer in accordance with section 64(2) of the Act, communicate to any person outside the place where the votes are being counted any information relating to the results of the count or to the number of votes given to any particular candidate at that polling station.

10 Collation of polling-station returns and aggregation of ordinary, postal and special ballots by Ward Elections Officer

(1) There shall be established in every ward where an election is to take place a ward elections officer whose role will be to count the postal and special ballots, if any, received in that ward, collate the polling station returns in his or her ward and add together these figures to arrive at the final results of the ward election and incorporate these into Form V. 23A.

ELECTORAL REGULATIONS, 2005

(2) The ward elections officer must give reasonable notice in writing to each candidate or his or her chief election agent or election agent of the time and place where the ward elections officer will verify and collate the polling-station returns for the ward.

(3) At the time and place notified by the ward elections officer, the ward elections officer will—

- (a) verify the postal ballots; and
(b) verify the special ballots; and
(c) unseal the postal ballot box, and having counted the postal ballot papers contained therein, record the result of the counting; and
(d) unseal the special ballot box, and having counted the special ballot papers contained therein, record the result of the counting; and
(e) verify the receipt of the polling station returns by filling in the appropriate spaces provided; and
(f) add together the number of votes received by each candidate as shown in each polling station return by filling in the appropriate spaces provided; and
(g) add together the number of votes received by each candidate as recorded under paragraphs (b) and (d) and fill the appropriate spaces provided.

[Section substituted by s.i 87 of 2013]

10A. Collation of ward returns in respect of National Assembly constituency election by National Assembly Constituency Elections Officer

At the time and place notified by the National Assembly constituency elections officer under section 65(1) of the Act, the constituency elections officer must verify and collate the ward returns for the National Assembly and incorporate these into Form V.23B National Assembly.

[Section substituted by s.i 87 of 2013]

10B. Collation of ward returns in respect of Presidential election by Presidential Constituency Elections Officer

The Presidential Constituency Officer must collate the ward returns in respect of the Presidential elections and complete the Presidential Constituency return in Form V.23B Presidential.

[Section inserted by s.i 87 of 2013]

10C. Collation of Presidential constituency returns by Provincial Command Centre

The Provincial Elections Officer must collate the ward returns in respect of the Presidential elections and complete the Provincial return in respect of the Presidential election in Form V.23C.

[Section inserted by s.i 87 of 2013]

10D. Allocation of party list seats

After receiving the returns for all the National Assembly constituency elections in the Province the Provincial Elections Officer must follow the procedures set out in the Act to arrive at the results of the party list seats for the Senate, the National Assembly and the Provincial Council in that Province and incorporate those results into a Provincial return in Form V.26.

[Section inserted by s.i 87 of 2013]

10E. Collation of Presidential Provincial returns at National Command Centre

The Chief Elections Officer must collate the returns for the Presidential election from the Provincial Command Centres and complete the National return in respect of the Presidential election in Form V.23D.

[Section inserted by s.i 87 of 2013]

11. Declaration of result of poll

(1) Subject to this section, the constituency elections officer shall declare the result of the poll in terms of section 66(1) of the Act by saying, both inside and outside the constituency centre, the following—

“I, being the constituency elections officer for the constituency, do hereby declare that I have, in accordance with the Electoral Act [Chapter 2:13], and the regulations made thereunder, ascertained the result of the poll for the said constituency, and that there have been given to—

(Name of candidate and party if any)

-votes;
..... votes;
..... votes;

and that I therefore declare the said this day to be duly elected member of Parliament for the constituency.”

(2) If at a poll referred to in subsection (1) two or more candidates have received an equal number of votes and such equality affects the result of the election, the constituency elections officer shall declare such result by saying, both inside and outside the place of verification and collation of polling-station returns, the following—

ELECTORAL REGULATIONS, 2005

“I, being the constituency elections officer for the constituency, do hereby declare that I have, in accordance with the Electoral Act [Chapter 2:13], and the regulations made thereunder, ascertained the result of the poll for the said constituency, and that there have been given to—

(Name of candidate and party if any)

..... votes;

..... votes;

..... votes;

and that, as and have received an equal number of votes and such equality affects the result of the election, the provisions of section 66(2) of the Electoral Act [Chapter 2:13], do apply, and the election shall be determined by the drawing of lots by the Chief Elections Officer in the presence of a judge of the Electoral Court.”:

Provided that, if such equality exists after the last count referred to in subsection (2), before making the statement in terms of this subsection, the constituency elections officer shall make a statement in terms of subsection (2) indicating the number of votes given to each candidate as determined at each counting of the votes.

12. Collection of ballot boxes and packets after close of poll

(1) The constituency elections officer shall fix and notify each presiding officer of the time and place where he or she will receive the ballot boxes and sealed packets referred to in section 69(1) of the Act.

(2) At the time fixed in terms of subsection (1), the constituency elections officer shall attend at the place notified in terms of subsection (1) for the reception of the ballot boxes and sealed packets referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The constituency elections officer shall, on the receipt of the ballot boxes and sealed packets referred to in subsection (1), examine seals on each such box and packet, and shall—

- (a) afford the candidates and the agents of the candidates an opportunity to examine such seals; and
- (b) make a record of any such seal which appears to him or her to have been tampered with.

13. Presiding officer to arrange for delivery of ballot boxes

If a presiding officer is unable for any reason to deliver personally to the constituency elections officer any ballot box and sealed packets referred to in section 12(1), he or she shall—

- (a) inform the constituency elections officer that he or she is unable to return the box and packets and the reasons therefor; and
- (b) arrange with the constituency elections officer for the delivery of such ballot box and packets by a person approved by the constituency elections officer.

14. Office hours and inspection and copies of documents

(1) The hours during which the office of an electoral officer shall be open to members of the public during any week-day which is not a Saturday or public holiday shall be from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m.:

Provided that the office of an electoral officer shall be open to members of the public on such additional days and for such longer hours as the Commission may prescribe or direct.

(2) Any person wishing to inspect a document which is open to inspection in terms of the Act shall specify the document and the election to which the document refers.

(3) A person inspecting any document referred to in subsection (2) shall not make any copy or extract from such document.

(4) A copy or extract from any document referred to in subsection (2) shall be supplied by the electoral officer upon payment of such fee as may be fixed by the Commission to cover the cost of making such copy or extract.

[Subsection inserted by s.i 68 of 2013]

[Section substituted by s.i 153 of 2009]

16. Duties of constituency elections officers and polling officers when rolls printed

(1) The Commission shall arrange for every constituency elections officer and presiding officer to be furnished with a copy of the rolls for that election, and every constituency elections officer shall permit every candidate to examine, for such period as the constituency elections officer considers expedient in the circumstances, a copy of the rolls for that election

(2) At the election, the presiding officer may himself or herself, and if so required by a candidate or his or her chief election agent or election agent shall, before allowing a person to vote—

- (a) require the person to exhibit his or her proof of identity; and/or
- (b) put to him or her such questions as the presiding officer considers necessary to enable the presiding officer to be satisfied that the person is qualified to vote; and if the person does not—

- (d) comply with paragraph (a); or
- (e) answer any question put to him or her under paragraph (b) to the satisfaction of the presiding officer;

he or she shall not be handed a ballot-paper:

Provided that—

- (i) no voter shall be disqualified from voting solely on the grounds that his or her answer to any question put to him or her under paragraph (b) indicates that he or she has changed his or her name or address or both;
- (ii) in the case of a change of name, the voter may be asked to produce proof of the same in the form of an affidavit, deed poll or notice of change of name in the Gazette.

(4) The presiding officer at the polling-station shall ascertain, by reference to the roll for the constituency, that the person claiming to vote is a person enrolled on that roll and, having ascertained that he or she is so enrolled and his or her number on the roll, the presiding officer shall—

- (a) mark the ballot-paper with the official mark and hand it to the person claiming the vote; and
- (b) draw a line through the number and surname of the voter on the roll as evidence that the voter has received a ballot-paper.

(5) Immediately after the count, the presiding officer shall make up into a separate packet and seal in accordance with the provisions of section 69(1)(b) of the Act the marked copies of the roll and shall forthwith deliver or cause it to be delivered to the constituency elections officer.

(6) In relation to postal ballot papers—

- (a) it shall not be necessary for the application to be accompanied by the voters registration certificate of the applicant;
- (b) the constituency elections officer shall draw a line through the number and surname of the voter in a copy of the roll, certified as correct by the Chief Elections Officer, as evidence that the voter has been issued with the postal ballot paper to which he or she is entitled but without showing the particular ballot paper issued to him or her.

(7) The constituency elections officer shall, if possible before the polling day, send to the presiding officer of every polling-station in the constituency a list of persons to whom postal ballot papers have been issued and the presiding officer shall write on the roll the letters "P.V." opposite the name of each such voter.

(8) Immediately after the declaration of the result of the poll the constituency elections officer shall transmit all the marked copies of the rolls to the Chief Elections Officer who shall retain them for six months and, unless otherwise directed by an order of the Electoral Court, cause them to be destroyed.

8. Numbers of accredited media practitioners allowed inside polling stations and collation centres.
9. Conduct of observers and accredited media practitioners inside polling stations and collation centres.
10. Amendment of SI 21 of 2005.

IT is hereby notified that the Zimbabwe Electoral Commission, in terms of section 192 of the Electoral Act [Chapter 2:13], has, with the approval of the Minister of Justice and Legal Affairs, made the following regulations:—

1. Title

These regulations may be cited as the Electoral (Accreditation of Observers) Regulations, 2013.

2. Applications for accreditation as observers

In accordance with Part IXB of the Act—

- (a) individuals representing local organisations and eminent persons from within Zimbabwe wishing to apply for accreditation as observers must, no later than—
- (i) the fourth day before the first day of special voting fixed under section 81A(1)(a); or
 - (ii) the fourth day before the first day of polling fixed in a proclamation made under section 38(1)(a), (b) or (c) for the election of the President, constituency members of the National Assembly or councillors;
- apply for accreditation indirectly to the Chief Elections Officer through the appropriate provincial elections officer of the province in which the observers propose to discharge their functions;
- (b) the following, namely—
- (i) foreign individuals or eminent persons wishing to apply for accreditation as observers; or
 - (ii) foreign organisations wishing to apply on behalf of its representatives for accreditation as observers; or
 - (iii) individuals whom the Minister or Minister responsible for foreign affairs has invited to observe an election;
- must, no later than either of the dates referred to in paragraph (a)(i) or (ii) apply for accreditation directly to the Chief Elections Officer.

3. Requirements for accreditation of representatives of local organisations

(1) A local organisation wishing to apply for accreditation of its representatives as observers must be registered as a Private Voluntary Organisation in terms of the Private Voluntary Organisations Act [Chapter 17:05] or established under a notarial deed of trust that is registered in the Deeds Office in terms of the Deeds Registries Act [Chapter 20:05].

(2) No consortium, confederation or similar association of local organisations referred to in subsection (1) may apply for accreditation of its constituent members as observers; however, the consortium, confederation or association may apply for the members of its management team or secretariat to be accredited as observers.

(3) No application for accreditation as an observer may be made by or on behalf of—

- (a) a person who has been convicted of any electoral offence or any other offence in respect of which the person has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment without the option of a fine;
- (b) an organisation the executive or management body of which consists of any member who has been convicted of any electoral offence or an offence involving fraud or dishonesty.

ELECTORAL (ACCREDITATION OF OBSERVERS) REGULATIONS, 2013

4. Accreditation of independent commissions and other state institutions

(1) Any independent Commission established by the Constitution of Zimbabwe may apply for accreditation of their Commissioners and their secretariat staff as observers.

(2) Any statutory body may apply for accreditation of the members of their governing boards and their secretariat staff as observers

5. Accreditation of members of foreign Embassies based in Zimbabwe

A foreign embassy may make application on behalf of its diplomatic staff or other nationals of its country to be accredited as observers, not exceeding five such persons who hold valid permits from the Department of Immigration.

6. Accreditation fees

(1) Observers from the following organizations and institutions will be exempt from the payment of accreditation fees—

- (a) the African Union;
- (b) the Southern African Development Community;
- (c) the Southern African Development Community Parliamentary Forum;
- (d) the Electoral Commissions Forum of the Southern African Development Community;
- (e) the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa;
- (f) electoral bodies in Africa performing functions similar to the Commission;
- (g) embassies in Zimbabwe representing countries in Africa.
- (h) any other organization that the Commission considers should be exempt from the payment of accreditation fees.

(2) The accreditation fee to be paid for accreditation—

- (a) for a local observer will be ten United States dollars;
- (b) for an observer invited from any country on the continent of Africa other than from the organisations specified in subsection (1), will be twenty United States dollars payable in cash;
- (c) for embassies in Zimbabwe representing countries outside Africa fifty United State dollars payable in cash;
- (d) by an observer from a country outside Africa will be one hundred United States dollars payable in cash;
- (e) media practitioners who are Zimbabwean citizens but who are working for foreign media houses will be fifty United States dollars payable in cash;
- (f) local media practitioners who are accredited with the Zimbabwe Media Commission will be ten United States dollars payable in cash.

7. Numbers of observers allowed inside polling stations and collation centres

(1) Not more than six observers, or, if there are more than six observers wishing to observe inside a polling station or collation centre, not more than six observers representing different observer groups, may be present at once inside a polling station or a collation centre.

(2) If there are more than six observers wishing to observe inside a polling station or collation centre, the polling officer must arrange for those observers outside the station to rotate with those inside at fixed intervals.

(3) For the avoidance of doubt, it is declared that the absence of observers at the voting, counting of ballots or the collation of votes or during any other process in connection with the election at which they are entitled to be present must not delay the voting, collation or other process concerned.

8. Numbers of accredited media practitioners allowed inside polling stations and collation centres

Accredited media practitioners will be entitled to enter polling stations and collation centres but the presiding officer officers at polling stations and collation centres will have the power to control the numbers of media practitioners present in a polling station or collation centre at the same time in order to avoid congestion inside the polling station or collation centre.

9. Conduct of observers and accredited media practitioners inside polling stations and collation centres

(1) On entering a polling station or collation centre an observer must exhibit to the presiding officer his or her accreditation certificate and sign the attendance register.

(2) Accredited observers must abide by the provisions of the Code of Conduct contained in the First Schedule to the Act.

(3) No accredited observer and, subject to subsection (4), no accredited media practitioner may make use of a mobile phone for telephonic communication or use a mobile phone camera or other camera to take photographs or make kinetic images inside a polling station.

(4) The presiding officer may allow accredited media practitioners to take photographs and make kinetic images inside the polling station or collation centre, but the media practitioners must not interfere with or obstruct the voting processes and must not take pictures of any voters who are marking their ballots inside voting compartments.

(5) An accredited observer may bring any irregularity or apparent irregularity in the conduct of the poll or the counting or collating of the votes to the attention of the Commission.

(6) Any accredited observer or accredited media practitioner who contravenes the provisions of this section or a lawful instruction given by the presiding officer may be required to leave the polling station or collation centre.

10. Amendment of SI 21 of 2005

Section 27 of the Electoral Regulations, 2005, published in Statutory Instrument 21 of 2005, is repealed.

Statutory Instrument 88 of 2013.

[CAP. 2:13

Statutory Instrument 84 of 2013.

[CAP. 2:13

Electoral (Special and Postal Voting) Regulations, 2013

IT is hereby notified that the Zimbabwe Electoral Commission, in terms of section 192 of the Electoral Act [Chapter 2:13], has, with the approval of the Minister, made the following regulations:—

1. Title

These regulations may be cited as the Electoral (Special and Postal Voting) Regulations, 2013.

2. Interpretation

In these regulations—

“form” means the appropriate form set out in the Schedule.

3. Forms for Special Vote

(1) The application by a member of the disciplined forces or an electoral officer for a special ballot paper in terms of section 81C of the Electoral Act will be in form SV.1 for Presidential, National Assembly and local authority elections.

(2) The authorisation to cast a special vote in terms of section 81D(1) of the Electoral Act will be in Form SV.2.

(3) The notification of refusal of authorization to cast a special vote in terms of section 81D(4) of the Electoral Act will be in Form SV.3.

4. Forms for Postal Vote

(1) The application form for a postal ballot paper in terms of section 73 of the Electoral Act [Chapter 2:13], will be in form PV.1 for Presidential, National Assembly and local authority elections.

(2) The letter from the applicant's head of Ministry, head of department or head of station or the head of Zimbabwe's Embassy or diplomatic or consular mission in the foreign State where the applicant is employed shall be in form PV. 2

(3) The postal ballot paper envelope referred to in section 74(1)(c) of the Act will be in form PV.3.

(4) The notification of rejection of application for a postal vote will be in form PV. 4.

5. Deletion from rolls of postal and special voters

The Chief Elections Officer must ensure that the voters roll supplied to each ward centre for the purposes of the ordinary election has a line drawn through every voter in the ward who has been authorised to cast a postal vote or special vote and will inscribe opposite that person's name the letters “P.V.” or “S.V.” as the case may be.

6. Applicant for special vote to specify special polling station where they will cast their vote

(1) An applicant for a special vote must specify the special polling station where he or she intends to cast his or her vote.

(2) If the Commission is satisfied that an applicant is entitled to cast a special vote, the Chief Elections Officer shall transmit the necessary ballot papers to the special polling station indicated by the applicant.

7. Repeals

The following provisions of the Electoral Regulations, 2005, published in Statutory Instrument 21 of 2005 are repealed—

3. Forms

(1) The claim form for registration as a voter in terms of section 24 of the Electoral Act will be in form VR. 1.

(2) The claim form for registration in a constituency in which an intended candidate is not resident in terms of the proviso to section 24(1) of the Electoral Act will be in form VR. 2.

(3) The claim form for the transfer of registration in terms of section 25(1) of the Electoral Act will be in form VR. 3.

(4) The claim form for transfer to a constituency in which an intended candidate is not resident in terms of the proviso to section 25(1) of the Electoral Act will be in form VR. 4.

(5) The voter’s registration certificate to be issued in terms of section 26 of the Electoral Act will appear as a detachable slip in forms VR. 1, VR. 2, VR. 3 and VR. 4.

(6) The notice of objection in terms of section 27(1) of the Electoral Act will be in form VR. 5.

(7) The objection to the retention of any name on the roll of a constituency in terms of section 28 of the Electoral Act will be in form VR. 6, and the prescribed fee referred to in section 28(2)(c) will be five United States dollars payable in cash.

(8) The notice of alteration of a voters roll in terms of section 35(2) of the Electoral Act will be in form VR. 7.

(9) The affidavit to be used by claimants for registration in terms of section 6(2) will be in form VR. 8.

4. Old forms and availability of new forms

(1) In this section—

“new form” means any form set out in the Schedule;

“old form” means any form prescribed in the repealed provisions of the Electoral Regulations, 2005, published in Statutory Instrument 21 of 2005.

(2) Notwithstanding section 3, any printed copy of an old form which is substantially similar to the corresponding new form may be used for purposes of the Act until the existing stocks thereof have been exhausted.

(3) An old form used in terms of subsection (2) shall be accepted for all purposes as if such form were the corresponding new form.

5. Proof of Identity

(1) For the purposes of registering as a voter the following documents shall constitute proof of identity—

(a) a national identity document, that is to say, an identity document issued in terms of section 7(2) of the National Registration Act [Chapter 10:17]; or

(b) a waiting pass, that is to say, a notice in writing issued in terms of section 7(1) of the National Registration Act [Chapter 10:17], which includes a photograph of the bearer; or

(c) a valid Zimbabwean passport with the holder’s national identity number on it; on which it is legibly shown that the person is a citizen of Zimbabwe of or over the age of eighteen years.

ELECTORAL (VOTER REGISTRATION) REGULATIONS, 2013

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, it is declared that a driver's licence cannot be used for the purpose of proving eligibility to be registered on the voters' roll.

6. Proof of Residence

(1) For the purposes of registering as a voter any of the following documents shall constitute proof of residence—
